Understanding Your APT (Assured Periodic Tenancy) Agreement

What is an APT?

An Assured Periodic Tenancy (APT) is an agreement between you and Zetetick Housing about your home.

We have created an Easy Read version of the APT to help you understand what to expect in your tenancy.

The document contains information about:

- What your tenancy means

- Your rights and responsibilities as a Zetetick tenant

Easy Read

- Zetetick Housing's responsibilities, including how we manage your home

- Health and safety information to help keep you safe at home

- How staff can help you and who to contact if you need help

- Information about what happens if a tenancy comes to an end

Do you have questions about the APT document?

You can ask your Zetetick Housing Officer for more information about the document.
